“The most significant thing I have learned through this class is how to get through college. I found out things I would have never learned without this class such as using the college web page to know about registering for classes, using my e-mail, and finding important class dates.”

“The most significant thing I learned in this class is how to put everything to use. It helped me plan my life ahead and be prepared for any circumstance. It made me ask, “What if I could begin creating the life of my dreams starting today?”

“I was impressed at how much easier tests are for me now. I actually used note cards to study for tests and it really paid off. I got my first one hundred percent on a test. I was so proud of myself because I have never had that much confidence in taking tests before.”

“I would like to say that I enjoyed this class very much and I will definitely recommend it to anyone who is beginning their college career. I think that all new students, traditional or non traditional should take this class if they really want to succeed in college.”

“One of the most significant things that I learned in this class was to take 100% responsibility for myself and my education.”

“I was worried that I had just been put in the class that no one takes because it is entirely useless and the only reason it is still afloat is because every year new freshmen are convinced to take the class. I am glad to say I did not waste any time at all; in fact I learned about all the time I have wasted in the past, and more importantly, what I can do to use my time more effectively.”

“I would truly advise everyone I know to take this course because it really does help you to become a master learner.”

“All in all, I think that taking this class was a great decision on my part. It helped me to learn my strengths and weaknesses, to become a better test-taker and student, learn how to learn, and to get the best out of my college experience.”

“Since I have taken this class, I am not anxious about meeting new professors and getting to know them in the next few years. Anticipation, not dread, comes to mind when I think about books I’ll be buying for my courses next semester.”

“Whether you have just graduated from high school, or you have been out of school for years, the need for adapting to college is necessary. I have found that this class has helped organize and ease me into college, and without it, the transition would have been much harder.”

“I have had a great experience in this class and I would definitely recommend this class to anyone who is interested in improving their learning skills.”
“I have learned many things that have shaped my behavior as a student. I now have many tools and resources that I can use to be a successful student and person. “Becoming a Master Student” has provided me with knowledge that will be useful throughout my life.”

“This class has improved my overall study habits and work ethic. It is a class devoted to helping people of all ages achieve success. This class has helped me work toward my personal goals, and I will use the ideas from this class for the rest of my life.”

“Coming into college, I was sort of lost. I knew the basics from high school but I needed someone to teach me how to truly be prepared for the years to come. This class has given me the key steps to a successful future.”

“College is much more than I expected and this class gives you the backbone for making it a success.”

“I think it should be a required class for all students because high school is so different compared to college. I would recommend this class to any first time college attendees.”

“All the techniques and well thought out strategies are being put to use by me now and I feel that I have already benefited from this class. I would suggest that all students take this class.”

“This class was about improving your weak spots and making adjustments. For a freshman coming into college, or any other person having problems with studying, this class is a great one to take and learn the tools to succeed in school.”
