REPORTS
President: President Foster reported that enrollment is down slightly, largely due to the decline in non-traditional male students and the new college voucher program. The college broke ground on the new residence hall. The County has committed $1,000,000, and the City has a possible commitment of $500,000 to the college.

Faculty Trustee: Faculty Trustee O’Roark reported what the faculty is accomplishing: a Holocaust speaker was on campus, Constitution Day participation, Trumbo novel editing, and service learning with the Grand Junction Business Incubator.

Student Trustee: Student Trustee Norman provided a written report and highlighted that Homecoming was a success. They are currently dealing with parking concerns.

ASG President: ASG President Joel Dyar reported an increase in student activity and participation. They have been involved in Katrina relief projects and Referendum C & D. The next project is World Hunger Day.

Faculty Senate President: Senate President Thomas was unable to attend but delivered a written report. Chairman Elliott highlighted her report indicating faculty salaries and spouse/child tuition discounts are concerns.

Board Chair: Chairman Elliott reported that the Joint Budget Committee was on the campus last week. They are making significant progress on community funding, and she reminded everyone of the upcoming Hoe Down on October 28, 2005, to celebrate Mesa’s 80th year.
