Ceremony Timeline & Details for Graduates

7:15 am / 10:45 am – Hamilton Recreation Center Gym

Graduates should arrive dressed in their regalia in the Hamilton Recreation Center Gym. Have your tassel hanging on the right side of your cap. Please bring your name card (to be picked up prior to the ceremony, see below) as it will be used to announce your name as you walk across the stage.

Processional Groups

Your assigned processional group will be printed on the bottom right section of your name card. View the Commencement Processional Map and signs in the Hamilton Recreation Center Gym to find your processional area. The groups are as follows:

Group A: Doctorate, Master's, and Graduate Certificate students; Singers performing in the ceremony and student speaker(s); Baccalaureate students graduating with a 4.00 cumulative GPA in CMU coursework; Baccalaureate student earning Departmental Honors; and students with special needs or accommodations.

Group B: Baccalaureate students (excluding 4.00 cumulative GPA candidates and others in Group A).

Group C: Associate and Certificate students.

Line up within each Processional Group

Colorado Mesa University faculty/staff will assist graduates in lining up into two single-file lines within the processional groups about 30 minutes prior to the ceremony. There is not an assigned order within the processional group. If you would like to try to sit by your friends, make sure they are in the same line either in front or behind you. When you are seated in the arena, please be aware that your group of friends may be split between two rows.

8:00 AM / 11:30 AM Ceremony Begins – Processional to Brownson Arena

Faculty will lead the processional, followed by the students. The Commencement Marshals will direct you to the graduate seating in Brownson Arena. Do not leave any vacant chairs in your row to ensure there is enough seating for all graduates. When you get to your chair, remain standing until directed to sit.

During Ceremony – Walking Across Stage and Name Announcement

The announcer will direct the Commencement Marshals to start leading graduates to the stage. The Commencement Marshal will start at the back row and work forward. Bring your name card with you and leave all other personal items at your seat. As your row is directed to the stage, exit toward the back of the room and follow the graduation helpers around the back hallway. When you arrive at the front stage and the speaker, hand your name card to the reader. If your name is difficult to pronounce, whisper it to the reader. As your name is read, proceed to the center of the stage to accept your diploma cover from the President and shake his hand while the professional photographer takes a picture. Exit the stage on the opposite side. Pose for photographs only in designated areas. Return to your seat with the assistance of the ushers.

Special Needs

Any graduate participating in the ceremony who will need special accommodations, please contact Erin Rooks at erooks@coloradomesa.edu or 970-248-1853. Those with special needs typically sit at the front of the graduates. If you are in a wheel chair, using crutches, need an interpreter, etc., please let us know so we can plan appropriately.
